LIVES CHANGED

“If not for this scholarship, I would have not been given the opportunity to meet the people I know now, see the places I have seen, nor know the things I have learned. And for that I am thankful. I’m thankful my community was willing to invest in my education.”

Omar, first graduate of the four-year scholarship program. Florida State University, Bachelors Degree in Accounting

MENTORS

20

Mentors can play a pivotal role in a student's life and provide wisdom, teaching, and support. Every scholarship recipient is paired with a leader in their field of interest or trusted adviser.

BUILDING A LEGACY

2013

In 2013, Project Scholars created a fund capable of providing our current level of support into perpetuity. Once achieved we will increase our scholarship size and the number of benefiting students until every deserving student with a need has a way to achieve the education they deserve.
